Simple SQL Queries:

==================

1.SELECT * FROM Regions;

(Or)

select

regions.region_id,regions.region_name

from regions;

2.SELECT * FROM Countries;

3.SELECT * FROM locations;

4.Select * from jobs;

5.Select * from employees;

6.Select * from departments;

7.Select * from job_history;

8.Select * from job_history where employee_id=101

9. Select * from job_history where employee_id=200

10.Select * from job_history where employee_id= 176

11.select min(region_id) from regions;

12.select min(region_id) from regions;

13. Number of Rows :

select count(*) from job_history;

14.

Display,region name and country id

select

```sql
countries.country_id,regions.region_id,regions.region_name
from countries,regions where countries.region_id=regions.region_id
```